Overview

Martha is an associate in the firm's Anti-Fraud and Extra Contractual Litigation, Catastrophic Loss, Commercial Litigation, Construction, Corporate/Business Services, Intellectual Property, and Products Liability practice groups.

Martha graduated with a B.A. in Communications and Journalism from the University of St. Thomas, where she served as Fundraising Chair of the Dance Club. She received her J.D. from the University of St. Thomas School of Law. During law school, Martha participated in the University of St. Thomas Trademark Clinic where she argued before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

Motivated by her passion for developing young minds and families, Martha served as a Street Law Teacher through the Minnesota Justice Foundation. In that role, she taught legal rights, responsibilities, and resources to middle school students. She also serves on the Board of Community United Methodist Church.

In her free time, Martha also enjoys crafting, dancing, and figure skating. She is also an avid bowler, having won multiple awards.
