Overview

Andrew's legal experience ranges from property damage, animal control law and automobile litigation to premises-related litigation and construction law. He has represented both insureds and insurers in these actions, including insurance companies in underinsured motorist claims. Andrew has successfully represented his clients at both jury trials and arbitrations in both Cook County and throughout northern Illinois.

Andrew graduated from Illinois State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice Sciences and received his Juris Doctor, summa cum laude, from the University of Illinois Chicago School of Law in 2011. During law school, Andrew was an Articles Editor on The John Marshall Law Review Board, was a member of the competition team for the August A. Rendigs, Jr. National Products Liability Moot Court and also worked for the Veteran's Legal Support Center and Clinic.

Outside the office, Andrew enjoys cooking, competitive sports, travel and spending time outdoors.
