Overview

Dillon is a litigation associate in the firm's insurance group. His practice involves advising clients on complex insurance coverage questions and resolving insurance disputes in state and federal courts across the country. Additionally, Dillon has served as the firm's captain for the Associates' Campaign for Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid, reflecting his commitment to promoting access to justice and supporting important community initiatives.

Dillon earned his J.D. from the University of Illinois College of Law, in Champaign-Urbana, Illinois, and is admitted to practice in Illinois, Minnesota, and Nebraska. He grew up in Nebraska and completed his undergraduate and graduate degrees through the University of Nebraska system.

Prior to relocating with his family to Minneapolis and joining Meagher + Geer, Dillon practiced with firms in Chicago, Illinois and Omaha, Nebraska, litigating matters across a variety of practice areas, including insurance coverage, property damage/subrogation, premises liability, products liability, and commercial disputes.

Outside of work, Dillon enjoys spending time with his family and being outdoors, whether running, biking, hiking, or strolling through the city to find new parks, playgrounds, and ice cream shops to keep his daughter entertained.
