Overview

Sadiya is a partner in the firm's insurance defense, commercial litigation, and construction law practices, representing clients from the firm's Los Angeles office. She works with businesses and insurers to navigate complex disputes and develop practical, efficient solutions.

Prior to joining the firm, Sadiya practiced at a midsized litigation firm in St. Petersburg, Florida, where she focused primarily on first-party property matters, representing clients in coverage and related disputes.

Clients work with Sadiya for:

- Insurance defense and first-party property matters
- Commercial litigation and dispute resolution
- Construction-related claims and litigation
- Strategic guidance in managing complex legal issues

Sadiya earned her J.D. from Stetson University College of Law, where she was a member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Board. She competed in the Willem C. Vis Moot Court Competition, earning first place at Pre-Moot Miami and Honorable Mention for Respondent's Brief in Vienna.

She received her B.A. in Psychology and Religious Studies from the University of California, Santa Barbara.

Outside the office, Sadiya enjoys traveling, trying new restaurants, and spending time with her dogs.
