Overview

Justin focuses his practice on commercial litigation, real estate, business and corporate services, and insurance matters, including bad faith and professional liability.

He represents clients through all phases of litigation, from initial case assessment through resolution. His experience includes drafting dispositive motions, conducting depositions, appearing for oral arguments and evidentiary hearings, and analyzing contracts and governing agreements. Justin regularly advises clients on real estate disputes, partnership and business conflicts, and insurance coverage and extra-contractual exposure.

Justin brings a practical, detail-oriented approach to his work, helping clients evaluate risk, develop strategy, and pursue efficient resolutions aligned with their goals. He has professional proficiency in Korean, written and spoken.
