Overview

Kaylin joined our Professional Liability – Health Care practice in 2018. Kaylin’s experience includes defending clients in all phases of litigation including preparation of initial pleadings, fact investigation, discovery, drafting dispositive and pretrial motions, and trial preparation. Prior to joining our firm, Kaylin was an associate at Rinke Noonan practicing corporate, real estate, and estate planning law.

Kaylin received her B.A., magna cum laude, in healthcare administration and political science from Concordia College Moorhead in 2011. After college, Kaylin spent a year working on the implementation of an electronic medical record system for a large healthcare system. She earned her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from the University of St. Thomas School of Law in May 2015. During law school, Kaylin served as President of Student Government, Executive Board Student Government – Committee Liaison, 1L Student Government Representative and was the Chair of the Mission Committee. She also completed a business externship with Ecolab Inc., and served as a certified student attorney with the Hennepin County Juvenile Public Defender’s Office as a part of a misdemeanor clinic.

Outside of the office, Kaylin enjoys spending time with her family (especially her dog Zoey), playing volleyball, being active, and traveling.
