Overview

Travis Allen's practice focuses on general civil litigation, professional liability defense, construction litigation, and personal injury defense. Travis also supports our insurance coverage practice. In addition to his practice, Travis serves on the firm's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee.

Prior to joining our firm, Travis served as a Law Clerk to the Honorable Susan Robiner of Minnesota's Fourth Judicial District, where he was involved in a variety of complex civil litigation matters, including construction defect, personal injury, fraudulent transfer, and commercial litigation cases. Travis also has extensive experience counseling and representing clients pro bono through volunteer opportunities and law school clinics.

Travis graduated summa cum laude from Mitchell Hamline School of Law. During law school, Travis was twice a quarter-finalist in the Pace National Environmental Law Moot Court. He received awards for top marks in Contracts and Advanced Advocacy, and volunteered his time with the Minnesota Justice Foundation.

In his free time, Travis enjoys volunteering, traveling, and reading sci-fi.
