Overview

Elizabeth is an associate in our professional liability health care practice group.

Elizabeth earned her B.S. degree in Kinesiology from the University of North Dakota in 2015. She served on the executive board for her Sorority – Kappa Alpha Theta, and participated in several intramural sports.

In 2020, Elizabeth earned her J.D. from the University of North Dakota School of Law, where she served on the Moot Court Board, and completed the U.S. Airways Transportation Certificate.

While Elizabeth was studying law, she worked at the Grand Forks State’s Attorney Office as a Senior Legal Intern. Through this opportunity, she gained valuable first chair experience in four trials, through practice papers.

Drawing on her experience as a judicial extern with the Northeast Judicial District, Elizabeth assists clients in all stages of the litigation process and is able to look at cases from various perspectives.

She has experience drafting varied legal documents including court briefs, motions, and research memoranda.

In her free time, Elizabeth enjoys golfing, biking, and hiking in various State Parks. Elizabeth also enjoys cooking for her family, and spending time with her two dogs.
