Overview

Tom's practice focuses on general civil litigation, mass tort and toxic tort litigation, products liability, real estate transactions, and advising businesses on contract and commercial disputes.

He earned a B.S. degree, magna cum laude, from the University of St. Thomas with a political science major and a minor in economics and was a St. Thomas Aquinas Scholar. He served as Historian for his Fraternity, Sigma Chi, Senator of St. Thomas Student Government, and Vice President of the Ultimate Frisbee Club.

In 2020, he earned his J.D. from the University of St. Thomas School of Law, where he was a member of the Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity and served as editor of the Adelphia Law Journal. Tom was a Dean's Scholarship recipient and earned the Dean's Award in Consumer Law.

Tom began his career with the firm in 2015 as a file clerk. In 2018, he rose to a law clerk, where he gained valuable experience conducting legal research, preparing memoranda, and assisting with discovery.

Prior to joining the firm, Tom worked as a sous chef in a St. Paul restaurant and guided international students at the St. Thomas Admissions Office.

In his free time, Tom enjoys cooking, traveling, reading, and running.
