Overview

Sinloria is an attorney in the firm's commercial litigation, construction, professional liability, and products liability practice groups.

She earned her B.A. degree from the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University where she served as a National Bonner Leader Scholar, a 2016 Marie and Robert Jackson Fellow, and a member of the Alpha Kappa delta International Sociology Honor Society.

In 2020, Sinloria earned her J.D. from the University of St. Thomas School of Law, where she served as a research assistant for Justice Alan Page and Dr. Artika Tyner, a Target Law Scholar, the President of the Black Law Student Association, and Senior Editor of the Journal of Law and Public Policy.

Sinloria began her career with the firm in 2018 as a Law Clerk, where she gained valuable experience conducting legal research, preparing memoranda and assisting with discovery.

Outside the office she enjoys creative writing, reading, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.
