Overview

Caitlin is an associate in our Family Law practice group. Prior to joining Meagher + Geer, Caitlin worked as a law clerk for the Honorable Elizabeth V. Cutter of the Fourth Judicial District's Family Court. During her clerkship, Caitlin gained substantive experience in navigating family law matters involving pre- and post-decree custody and parenting time disputes, child support, and property division issues. Caitlin also clerked for the Honorable Kristin A. Siegesmund and for the Honorable Mel I. Dickstein, both of the Fourth Judicial District.

Caitlin obtained her B.A., magna cum laude, from Brown University in 2014. While there, she was active in student groups and the recipient of several awards, including the MH Hicks Prize for Outstanding Achievement in Archaeology, and the Undergraduate Teaching and Research Award.

In 2017, Caitlin obtained her J.D. from the University of Minnesota Law School, where she earned a spot on the Dean's list and was the recipient of the John Kukowske Memorial Scholarship and the Dean's Distinguished Scholarship. She was also an active participant in the International Moot Court and a Student Director of the Immigration and Human Rights Law Clinic.

Outside the office, Caitlin enjoys reading, traveling, and listening to live music.
